- An electrical test area will be provided. Extension cords are not allowed.
- Trailers may be parked in a rented space if they do not exceed 7 feet in width and 14 feet in length.
- All vendors must contain their merchandise within the marked boundaries of their space. Spaces are 10'x 15'.
- No food and beverage items may be sold from any spaces. Concession rights have been assigned to other organizations. The City of Myrtle Beach and/or the Myrtle Beach Convention Center retains all concessions rights. You cannot sell single serving food and beverages, meant for immediate consumption, on these premises.

- The City of Myrtle Beach Convention Center will not be responsible for any theft or damage to any merchandise or vehicles.
- Vendors must keep their sales space manned at all times.
- PLEASE DO NOT LEAVE ITEMS OR TRASH IN YOUR SPACE.
Goodwill will have a truck at the loading dock in the rear of the building to accept your unwanted items. Please drop off the items you wish to donate as you leave the Exhibit Hall. There are several dumpsters near the loading dock that you can use for trash.
- The sale will be held rain or shine. The only reason the sale will be canceled is if there is a tropical storm or hurricane watch issued for the Myrtle Beach area.

PROHIBITED ITEMS

City of Myrtle Beach Code of Ordinances

Chapter 4 Animals, Sec 4-1 Definitions

Wild or feral animal means any animal which is untamed, feral, or not naturally tame or gentle, and which is of a wild nature or disposition, or which is capable of killing, inflicting serious injury on, or causing disease among humans or domesticated animals; or having known tendencies as a species to do so; which shall include, but not be limited to any nondomesticated member of the order Carnivora; all nondomesticated members of the family felidae; wolves, wolf-dog hybrids containing any percentage of wolf, coyotes and foxes; badgers, wolverines, weasels, skunks and mink; raccoons; bears; nonhuman primates to include apes, monkeys, baboons, macaques, lemurs, marmosets, tamarins and other species of the order primates; bats; alligators, crocodiles, caimans, and turtles; scorpions; any snakes or venomous reptiles; or lizards over two feet which are members of the family varavidae. (Ord. No. 2001-17, 7-10-01; Ord. No. 2001-50, 8-14-01)

Sec. 4-7. Vicious, dangerous or wild feral animals prohibited; exceptions

(3) It shall be unlawful for any person to sell, expose to public view or contact, exhibit either gratuitously or for a fee, any wild or feral animals, or any animal of mixed domestication and feral lineage within the corporate limits of the city on public or private property, except as provided herein in (c). Animal control officers and law enforcement officers upon probable cause or citizens by way of warrant lawfully issued may institute criminal process against the owner, keeper or merchant of a wild or feral animal. A wild or feral animal may be immediately impounded by the animal control officer or a sworn law enforcement officer upon a reasonable determination of the exigencies concerning public health, safety and welfare or to alleviate an animal's suffering, or by warrant lawfully issued upon probable cause.

(Ord. No. 2001-17, 7-10-01; Ord. No. 2004-8, 1-27-04)
