Independence Day 5K 2020 Social Distancing Plan

Packet Pick Up - Provide flexible packet pick up for a week leading up to the race at Native Sons

No Cash Exchanged - All runners have to register prior to showing up. No on site registration.

Merchandise - Have to stick with size selected. Once you touch it, its yours

Staff - All staff wear gloves and masks

Runners - Will be left up to their discretion re masks and gloves

Tables - Set up two tables between us and runners to keep them 6 ft away

Water - Bottled water only at water station and finish line that is sanitized before being placed on the table.

Volunteers - No Volunteers on course, except for water stations. Course will be heavily marked with signage, arrows and cones

Race Management - Start running at 7 am (adjusted from 7:30 am) Road closed at 6am

1. Runners go off in ABC order
2. 5 runners at a time stationed 6 feet apart
3. Start Runners every 30 seconds
4. We give runners a time Frame for bib pick up and race start- For example A-F will start from 7 am to 7:15 am and pick up bibs from 6:40 - 6:55 am ; G - L will run from 7:15 to 7:30 am and pick up bibs from 7 am - 7:15 am; and so on.
5. Utilize Valor Park and Grande Park to provide for the maximum social distancing.
6. Check in across the street and they can start when they want with an open start for 1 hour. This way they can check in and go directly to the start and go. No waiting around.
7. My goal would be to have everyone start the race by 8 am and be completed by 9 am. This would fit into our previous time frames for street closures. We would be closing a half hour earlier, but should be able to open the road back up at the standard time
8. No awards - can pick up awards at Native Sons the following week or pay a fee to have awards mailed to them
9. Our biggest challenge will be packet pick up on site. Our plan is to have constant announcements to keep people 6 feet apart and call them up for packet pick up.
10. We strongly believe that we can do this race in a safe and effective manner and keep everyone spread out.
